

Side Notes: The music for this song is an Irish folk song entitled, "Slane". David Evans combined the old Irish text written in the 6th century with the folk melody and it was first published in the 1927 edition of the Church of Scotland's Hymnary. It is now sung in churches around the world and is widely known as "Be Thou My Vision."

This has become one of my favorite hymn melodies. I also included three of my favorite verses of the lyrics. Feel free to repeat any of the verses with the other lyrics that have been written.
