

Side Notes: I had the unique opportunity to be introduced to this unpublished and unrecorded hymn while working on this project. As the songs were coming together, I kept feeling like there was a song that needed to be included but couldn't figure out what it would be. This arrangement came together in a short amount of time and as I was writing out the notes I kept thinking of the message that we are God's hands and through us, His tender mercies bless the lives of others.
