Side Notes: The lyrics for this hymn were inspired by a comment made by Mrs. Doolittle in 1905. She had been bedridden for nearly twenty years, and her husband spent much of his life in a wheelchair. Despite these hardships, she expressed her faith with these words: “His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.”

His Eye is on the Sparrow

EASIER

Civilla Martin (1905); Charles Gabriel
Arr. JASON TONIOLI

© 2026 Tonioli Music, LLC