Side Notes: Think of a scene with shepherds from the "hills" of Bethlehem in ancient times as you play this song.
Try to capture a sad yet hopeful feeling of a person who is waiting to be delivered from hard times. Just as in ancient times when people waited for the Savior, individuals are struggling to survive today and hoping for something or someone to help them. This is a song of hope for deliverance from difficult times.

O Come, O Come Immanuel

For Piano & Violin

Arranged by
JASON TONIOLI

13th Century Plainsong

Copyright © 2018 Tonioli Music, LLC
All Rights Reserved