

Side Notes: This song was originally written as a piano solo and then we added violin to it at the recording studio. I really like the way both versions turned out, so I've included the piano solo in this book. If you are ever looking for a violin duet of this song, then check out Tonioli.com. Over the years we've done dozens of violin and other duets with my music. I'm always looking for ideas for arrangements as well, so if you have an idea of something you'd like to see for violin, flute or another instrument, please send me an email. I'm always looking for awesome song ideas and I've found that some of the best ideas are usually from a person asking for an arrangement.

As I wrote this tune I was picturing two dancers or figure skaters together for the last few moments before saying goodbye. Take your time with the tempo to make it feel as if there are two people handing off the lead of the melody and tempo to each other.
