

Side Notes: While I was working one spring day as pandemic restrictions were lifting, I was trying to figure out how to encourage people to join me on a cruise to Alaska. I had this song pop into my head and quickly sang the melody into my phone, and then sat down and started to sketch out the sheet music to this song. Over about 24 hours, I kept singing this melody and each time I'd play or sing it, I could see, smell and taste spring. When I've visited Alaska, it always seems to have the smell of fresh air mixed with pine trees. I can't wait to do piano concerts on the ship with a small group of travelers, but for those who aren't able to join us, I hope this song will bring a bit of the soundtrack and feeling of spring and the taste and smell of the fresh air which comes with renewed life.

Spring

JASON TONIOLI

Sheet music for the piano piece "Spring" by Jason Tonioli. The music is in 4/4 time, B-flat major, and consists of four systems of two staves each. The first system starts with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The melody is primarily in the right hand, with a rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand and a whole rest in the left hand.
